DIED AT ROCK ISLAND.

Sister Mary Camillus Monahan, formerly of the Visitation Convent, This City. Passed to Her Reward August 20th.

On the 20th of August, 1902, Sister Mary Camillus Monahan departed this life at the Visitation Convent, Villa de Chantal, Rock Island, Ill., of consumption, in the thirty-seventh year of her age and the fifteenth of her religious profession.

Sister M. Camillus was laid to rest in the beautiful new cemetery in Rock Island, after an impressive funeral service conducted by Rev. Thomas Mackin, of Rock Island, Rev. J. Kelly, of Moline, Ill., Rev. Theo. Wolters, of Annapolis, Ill., and Rev. G. Von der Ahe, of Cincinnati. Many beautiful floral offerings were presented. Mr. P. H. Monahan and Miss Nellie Monahan, of Detroit, Mich., the father and sister of the deceased religious, were present at the funeral.

Sister M. Camillus was formerly connected with the Convent of the Visitation, this city.

BATTLE-SCARRED

And Deaf, a Kentucky Soldier Is Hunting For His Parents—Claims Maysville as a Home.

OMAHA, NEB., August 28.—Fred J. Howe, a deaf and dumb veteran of the Philippine and Chinese wars, sixteen years of age, is in Omaha searching for his parents, who moved from Maysville, Ky., while he was in the Orient. He only knows they moved West.

Howe says he ran away from home when the war broke out, drifted to Kansas and finally went to the Philippines as the mascot of Company K, Twentieth Kansas Volunteers, but that he was put to work on reaching the island and carried water at Calocan during the battle, being wounded twice. Later, with Company C, Ninth Regulars, Howe went to Tien-Tsin and marched with the company to Peking. He is covered with wounds, having eight bullet scars alone and several bolo scars.

Y. M. C. A.

To-morrow at 4 p. m. there will be an "around the table" discussion of Maysville and her men, no one under sixteen admitted.
